

ACCEPTING ONLINE FRIEND AND FOLLOWER REQUEST

Do you look for specific qualities in friends you hang out with offline?

Of course! Kind, funny, honest...people I trust and share important things with.

Do you even KNOW 500 people? How do you know you don't have an imposter or someone mean?

I don't know, but NOBODY would do anything to ME. I'm nice.

We NEED to review your online friends/followers and delete anyone that you do not know.

BEFORE ACCEPTING REQUEST ASK YOURSELF...

- ✓ Do I know this person offline?
- ✓ Can I verify this person is who they say they are?
- ✓ Do I trust them to keep the content I post private?
- ✓ Do I like what I see posted on their profile?
- ✓ How many friends and followers do they have? (Remember, on most social media, "friends of friends" can see what you post.)
- ✓ Is their profile set to private?
- ✓ Do I know they will treat me with respect online?
- ✓ Would my parents or guardian approve of this person?
